

BASIC DEPENDANT LIFE INSURANCE

PROTECTION FOR YOUR FAMILY...

How often do you consider life insurance coverage for your family members? It is something that we always intend to do tomorrow, but sometimes “tomorrow” never comes.

That is why we are giving Advantage Health Plans Trust participants the opportunity to purchase dependant life coverage at a very economic premium. All Advantage Health Plans Participants are eligible to purchase this coverage for their dependent family members.

JUST $2.00 A MONTH FOR YOUR SPOUSE &
CHILDREN!

WHO IS A DEPENDANT?

A dependant means your legal spouse or unmarried child, under age 21 years; adopted, foster and step-children are considered dependants if you have custody of them. Child also includes an unmarried child, age 21 and over, attending a college or other school on a full-time basis, who is financially dependent upon the insured for support.

ENROLLMENT

Any employee that desires to enroll their dependants more than 31 days after first becoming eligible, will be required to submit Evidence of Insurability for those dependants. Coverage for those dependants will not become effective until approval has been received from Reliance Standard.

AMOUNTS...

You can purchase $5,000 worth of coverage on your spouse and $2,500 worth of coverage on each dependant child for just $2.00 per month.
