

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Advantage Health Plans Trust Welcomes Brad Brawner as Director of Business Development

March 11, 2019, Oklahoma City, OK – The Kempton Company, Administrator of Advantage Health Plans Trust, is proud to welcome Brad Brawner as the Director of Business Development for Texas.

Mr. Brawner joins the AHPT team with more than 20 years of experiences in sales, marketing and human resources in the insurance and financial industry. From 2005-2017, Mr. Brawner was the owner of an independent insurance agency that provided insurance and financial products. Mr. Brawner has additional experience as an Executive Recruiter for community banks

Melissa Nance, Vice President of Market Development, believes that Mr. Brawner's qualifications and background will be a great resource for IBAT members, stating, "Brad's knowledge of insurance, health benefits, and HR needs, along with his experience working with community banks, makes Brad a great asset in Texas."

Mr. Brawner is passionate about the work AHPT is doing to lower the costs of care and benefits, pointing out AHPT's unique model that can help IBAT members, and the banking community, bend the cost curve long-term. "I have experienced firsthand the disparity in the price of healthcare. I want to be a part of educating members of AHPT about a better way to control costs by utilizing and promoting AHPT's high-value, consumer-driven benefits. With our focus on transparent healthcare pricing, combined with our outstanding customer service, AHPT provides a better way to offer health benefits to your employees."

Mr. Brawner is a graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in Political Science and is licensed in Life, Accident and Health Insurance.

Please reach out to Mr. Brawner to extend your congratulations and learn more about his new role with The Kempton Company and Advantage Health Plans Trust.
